

URGENT INFORMATION PLEASE READ!!

Rosedale Technical College anticipates the ability to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants in the near future to our students who are actively enrolled. The grants are based on funding from the U.S. Department of Education and will be used to offset expenses related to the students cost of attendance at the institution. The Department of Education understands that student's ability to pay for these expenses has been impacted by the pandemic. Relevant expenses are such things as housing, food, course materials and supplies, health care, child care and tuition. Rosedale Technical College's Administration will use the information you provide in the enclosed application to determine your eligibility for a grant and the amount you may be eligible for. Grants awarded will go directly to the student in the form of one or more checks. Students may choose to apply the grant towards any unmet financial need they have resulting in tuition balance. In order to be considered for a grant and the first round of disbursements, please return your application by March 10th to Rosedale Financial Aid Director, Kim Bell.

Please make sure to fill it out completely and provide your most recent contact information as not to delay the process. Checks will be mailed so we will need your most current address. Even if you check "NO" to indicate you have not been impacted, please return the application for our records and to maintain eligibility in the event your circumstances change. You may also choose to scan and email back a completed copy of the application to Rosedale's Director of Financial Aid, Kim Bell at kim.bell@rosedaletech.org. Please feel to reach out to Kim with any questions via email or by calling the school office at 412-521-6200 or by texting or calling 412-436-5257.

Please stay safe and healthy!!

Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds Emergency Financial Aid Grant calculation policy

Rosedale Technical Colleges grant calculation below was developed in accordance with guidelines set forth by the Department of Education for the disbursement of emergency financial aid grants provided through the student portion of Higher Education Emergency Relief Act.

Rosedale Technical College identified students who were eligible for Title IV funds and were active students as of March 10, 2021. Students were provided a grant application to request funding and indicate to the school the impact of the disruption of campus operations as a result of the Coronavirus pandemic. The institution also identified a student's EFC and dependency status based on their 2020-2021 FAFSA to be considered in the calculation formula. The factors listed below along with the corresponding dollar amount were used to calculate emergency financial aid relief grants to students.

Auto zero EFC	$500
Dependent Students based on 20/21 FAFSA		$300
Independent Students based on 20/21 FAFSA	$600
Student is responsible for cost of housing		$175
Student is responsible for cost of meals	$175
Student is responsible for costs of course materials and/or technology associated with online courses.		$175
Independent student responsible for childcare costs	$175
Student has lost income due to the pandemic	$175
Dependent student whose parent income is impacted by coronavirus	$175
Other impact factor not listed		$175
