

Rosedale Technical College Code of Conduct for Education Loans 2025/26

Rosedale Tech is committed to providing students and their families with the best financial aid information and processing alternatives available regarding student borrowing. In support of this and in an effort to rule out any perceived or actual conflict of interest between Rosedale Tech officers, employees or agents and education loan lenders, Rosedale Tech has adopted the following Code of Conduct:

- Rosedale Tech does not participate in any revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender.
- Rosedale Tech does not permit any officer, employee, or agent of the school who is employed in the financial aid office or is otherwise involved in the administration of education loans to accept any gifts of greater than a nominal value from any lender, guarantor, or servicer.
- Rosedale Tech does not permit any officer, employee, or agent of the school who is employed in the financial aid office or is otherwise involved in the administration of education loans to accept any fee, payment, or other financial benefits (including a stock purchase option) from a lender or affiliate of a lender as compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or contract to provide services to a lender or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans.
- Rosedale Tech does not permit any officer, employee, or agent of the school who is employed in the financial aid office or is otherwise involved in the administration of education loans to accept anything of value from a lender, guarantor, or group of lenders and/or guarantors in exchange for service on an advisory board, commission or other group established by such a lender, guarantor group of lenders and/or guarantors. Rosedale Tech does allow for the reasonable reimbursement of expenses associated with participation in such boards, commissions, or groups by lenders, guarantors, or groups of lenders and/or guarantors.
- Rosedale Tech does not assign a lender to any first-time borrower through financial aid packaging or any other means.
- Rosedale Tech recognizes that a borrower has the right to choose any lender from which to borrow to finance his/her education. Rosedale Tech will not refuse to certify or otherwise deny or delay the certification of a loan based on the borrower's selection of a lender and/or guarantor.
- Rosedale Tech will not request or accept any offer of funds to be used for private education loans to students from any lender in exchange for providing the lender with a specified number or volume of Title IV loans, or a preferred lender arrangement for Title IV loans.
- Rosedale Tech will not request or accept any assistance from any lending institution with call center or financial aid office staffing.
