

ADA/ Nondiscrimination Policy

Rosedale Technical College prohibits unlawful discrimination against qualified students with disabilities and encourages their full participation within the RTC community. All faculty, staff, and administrators will actively support students with disabilities in all education programs and activities, in cases where such support is readily achievable and is not an undue burden. The Rosedale Technical College policy, in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act, defines a qualified student with a disability as “any person who is regarded as having such an impairment, and (a) who meets the academic and technical standards requisite for admission to or participation in the school’s programs, and (b) who has a documented physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.
